Camp Rules:

The Board of Directors of Barton Bible Camp have passed the following rules and believe they are necessary to the running of an effective camp that will contribute to the spiritual welfare of the campers.

- 1.) All clothing must be modest. Clothing considered immodest and/or inappropriate and that should not be worn includes but is not limited to the following: tank top, spaghetti strap, and off shoulder shirts; dresses, shirts or tops with low cut necklines; shirts or tops that reveal the midriff; see through tops, pants or dresses; short shorts; wide legged athletic shorts; shorts with and in-seam length less than 6 inches or that are split sided; exercise, yoga and any spandex or other form-fitting pants such as people wear for biking. All pants, shorts, and slacks must be worn at the waist with no visible undergarments. Items with inappropriate messages, slogans, words, symbols, or imagery should also be avoided.
- 2.) No tobacco, illegal, or controlled substances will be permitted.
- 3.) No fireworks, radios, CD players, video games, etc.
- 4.) No pets allowed. No exceptions! This includes staff.
- 5.) All cell phones will be turned in to cabin counselors each morning and returned to campers nightly.

Things to bring:

Bible, paper, pencil, toilet articles, towels, sheets, pillow, blankets, insect repellent, flashlight, batteries, camera, ball glove.

We will have a Sunday worship service. Please plan to have proper dress attire for this service.

Registration begins at 6:00 PM on Friday, August 31st and cabins will then be open. Registration ends at 1:00 AM and will resume Saturday morning at 8:00 AM if necessary. Dismissal will be at 11:00 AM on Monday, September 3rd.
